Life's Little Lessons

Someone once described the beatitudes of today's Gospel as the 'Be-Attitudes', attitudes that should underpin our approach to life.

The following pearls of wisdom come from many people of varying ages, some over time and experience, and others as spontaneous revelations.

But in each case, the person has learned that:

`Lending to friends and relatives causes them to get amnesia –
Age 32

It's hard to lie when you are looking into your mother's eyes – Age 9.

The more mistakes you make, the smarter you get – Age 13.

Taking a break in the middle of the job isn't half as relaxing as taking a break after the job is finished – Age 16.

A minute of extra thinking beforehand can save hours of worry later –
Age 22.

No situation is so bad that losing your temper won't make it worse – Age 71.

If you are still talking today about what you did yesterday, you haven't done much today – Age 21

A mother is only as happy as her child – Age 49

When you're too busy for friends, you're too busy – Age 48

A kindness done is never lost. It will return again – Age 77

Be open minded, but not so open minded that your brains fall out – Age 54

Keep your words soft and tender because tomorrow you may have to eat them – Age 38
